IRA Charitable Rollovers, also known as qualified charitable contributions, are an increasingly popular way for donors 70.5 or older to support their favorite charities. Donors can make up to $100,000 in tax-free charitable distributions annually, lowering taxable income, and, if 72 or older, helping to meet minimum distribution requirements.

To initiate a qualified charitable distribution from your IRA to Tennessee Wildlife Federation, please provide the following information to your financial institution:

Legal name: Tennessee Wildlife Federation, Inc

Taxpayer ID: 62-604718

Permanent address: 300 Orlando Ave., Nashville, TN, 37209

Accordingly, when Tennessee Wildlife Federation receives the QCD gift from my financial institution, it will provide me with a written acknowledgment of the gift date and amount, stating no goods or services were transferred to me in consideration for the gift.

In your transmittal to the American Red Cross, please indicate my name and address as the donor of record and copy me on your correspondence in connection with this transfer. It is my intention to have this transfer qualify for exclusion during this tax year.
